ANNUAL MEETING:

PRESENTATIONS BY SENIOR PROGRAMS & DISCUSSION ON SINGLE SENIOR NETWORK

Saturday, October 29, 2005: 10:00 A.M. to 3:30 P.M.

Place: Indian American Kerala Center (NIAASC Office) 1824 Fairfax Street, Elmont, NY 11003.

Presentations by the Senior Programs:

“How these Programs were developed; Difficulties/Problems encountered in the process; Lessons learnt; Activities being undertaken; and How do they perceive the future.”

The Annual Meeting, expected about 2:30 P.M., will have a report by the President, Report of the Nominating Committee, Annual Financial Report (already mailed to members), Executive Director’s Report. Nominating Committee will submit names for the Board members: seven members of the Board will be retiring this year but will be eligible for re-nomination, and there are three vacancies on the Board. Any NIAASC member interested to serve on the Board of Directors can submit his/her name and mail the same with a brief bio in an envelope to NIAASC at 7 Roberta Avenue, Farmingville, NY 11738 (marked: Attention Nominating Committee). The event will end with awards to outstanding community leader(s) for his/her contribution to the causes of seniors.

A documentary “Neither Milk Nor Yogurt” produced and directed by Arti Jain during lunch: Neither Milk Nor Yogurt tells the story of an immigrant woman who at the dusk of her life questions the idea of home. Is home where she was born or where she lived for forty years, raising her family through racism and loneliness? It is a story for all ages and for anyone who has ever left home and missed it. As Saroj Dave tries to find her answers she makes us question some of our assumptions. Neither Milk Nor Yogurt was the finalist for the 2005 Student Oscars®, and the winner of Best Director-Documentary Award at the San Francisco Women's Film Festival.

NIAASC seeks your support and collaborations. Following are the suggested fees/donations requested: Names of all sponsors, collaborators and donors shall appear on the program. (Names of Collaborators will appear along with NIAASC on the front page of the program)
